

Open Doors

And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works
Hebrews 10:24

Real openness can be hard, leaving us vulnerable to rejection, correction, or increased responsibility and labor. Sometimes we even feign an outward openness while inwardly remaining closed and protected. Maybe you are in a place where you can encourage other ladies to communicate God's love through open hands, hearts, and homes. We look forward to a time of encouraging one another to press on in loving service to the Lord and others.

Speaker

JOANNA DAVIS

Having grown up in a pastor's home and also marrying a preacher, Joanna Davis has been involved in Christian ministry her entire life. She and her husband Jeff have served churches and Christian schools in South Carolina, North Carolina, and Indiana. They now live in Greenville, South Carolina, where Jeff serves as the Director of EMU International mission board. She has led ladies' ministries and spoken at ladies' retreats, but her passion is life-on-life discipleship. She has four children (including our own Bethany Wilder – oh, the stories she could tell), and a grandson on the way.
